

EUROPEAN COURT OF HUMAN RIGHTS
COUR EUROPÉENNE DES DROITS DE L'HOMME

DECISION

CASE OF HJELM v. SWEDEN

*(Application no. 28912/23)
introduced on 7 July 2023*

The European Court of Human Rights, sitting on 8 February 2024 in a single-judge formation pursuant to Articles 24 § 2 and 27 of the Convention, has examined the application as submitted.

The application refers to Article 6 § 1 of the Convention, Article 13 of the Convention and Article 1 of Protocol No. 1.

As concerns the complaints raised under Article 6 § 1 of the Convention and Article 13 of the Convention, the Court finds that domestic remedies have not been exhausted as required by Article 35 § 1 of the Convention, since the applicant failed to raise before competent domestic authorities, either in form or in substance and in accordance with the applicable procedural requirements, the complaints that were made to the Court.

As concerns the complaints raised under Article 1 of Protocol No. 1, the Court finds in the light of all the material in its possession that the matters complained of do not disclose any appearance of a violation of the rights and freedoms set out in the Convention or the Protocols thereto. Accordingly, these complaints are manifestly ill-founded within the meaning of Article 35 § 3 (a).

The Court declares the application inadmissible.
